

Level 3 Award in Facilitating Learning and Development

Duration: 4 days
Accreditation: NCFE

Introduction/Summary

The City and Guilds Award is designed for attendees who want the knowledge and understanding required to successfully deliver training.

This qualification gives an understanding of training skills and techniques to work effectively within a company and deliver it appropriately. Learners will develop transferable skills to use across all sectors of teaching and support their work environment. The qualification explores the importance of teaching within groups and the knowledge of how to effectively educate learners.

The course is delivered through trainer led online sessions, with additional research and study by attendees. The qualification is achieved by completion of 4 half day sessions, with a further individual observation in the delegates own environment, plus a professional discussion to cover any gaps.
